

COMMUNICATIONS STUDY ABROAD IN AUSTRIA

Entertainment and Tourism Summer 2019

- Learn and experience entertainment and tourism in beautiful Salzburg Austria, home of Mozart and the Sound of Music. Salzburg is a mecca for classical music, opera, and theater in the summer and is a top European tourism destination.
- Austria is a culturally rich country that offers stunning views of the Alps, along with the hiking and skiing that go with them. Salzburg lies between Munich Germany and Vienna Austria. This program will allow travel to both and beyond!
- This 4-week program will begin in late May at CSUF with an orientation and online instruction. Then, we will travel to Austria in early June for a two-week residential program. Students may extend their stay after the program to travel to different parts of Europe before returning home.
- Living arrangements: Logistics are being provided by CSUF international partner Salzburg College. Students live in dorms and/or with host families who provide several meals a day. Food is also available from the many restaurants and cafes located in Salzburg.
- Costs to Attend (numbers are approximate)
 - CSUF Summer Tuition (6 units)
 - Program Fees, Room & Board $2600
 - $1400 for airfare
 - IRA funds may be used to reduce these costs for students if available
- Courses and Financial Aid:
 - Complete COM 447 Travel and Tourism
 - COM 410 Communication Research
 - Ask about other course options!
 - Aid: Communications students are eligible to apply for Maxwell Scholarships through the Department of Communications.
