

COMMUNICATIONS STUDY ABROAD GREECE

- Greece is the home of western democracy and features beautiful coastlines, ancient ruins, and a culture that values hospitality. This three-week program will feature lectures and orientations at CSUF and then will spend 2 weeks exploring/touring Greece, while learning about intercultural communications and creating compelling digital communication tools. The travel dates for this program are tentatively May 21-June 5th 2020.
- Courses:
 - HCOM 320 Intercultural Communications (D5 and Category Z GE)
 - COMM 334 Feature Writing
- This Trip Includes:
 - An Exploration of Athens, The Acropolis, and The Acropolis Museum
 - A trip to the historic oracle site at Delphi
 - A trip to ancient Olympia home of the original Olympics
 - A one day cruise to three Greek islands off the coast of Athens
 - Much more: Museums, Restaurants, Greek Culture!
- Logistics: The air, hotel, and transportation for this trip will be handled by a professional tour company. Students will stay in hotels (double occupancy), and will be led through the tour by experienced and licensed tour guides.
- Approximate Costs to Attend:
 - $3800 Air, Hotel, Admissions, Transportation, and many meals
 - $1900 CSUF Tuition
 - Financial Aid: Scholarships are available for this program.

Contact Dr. Dean Kazoleas,
Director of the Maxwell Center for International Communications:
dkazoleas@fullerton.edu