

M.A. Program of Communication Sciences and Disorders (CSD)

Application Checklists

(Application deadline: January 15th, 11:59 pm Pacific Standard Time for the following fall semester of each academic year)

1. You will first apply online through CSU APPLY

(Any Qs? Please refer to NEW CSU APPLY Instructions or contact Admissions & Records office or Frequently Asked Questions)

2. You will then go to CSDCAS

Follow the instructions to create your account and submit the following materials online through CSDCAS.

- ___ a. A letter of intent (also known as 'personal statement or essay')
- ___ b. Three letters of recommendation (two must be from CSD faculty or instructors, & one from a supervisor in the field)
- ___ c. Enter your grade of all college or university courses as instructed by CSDCAS.
 - Your GPA will be computed automatically based on only the CSD major courses.
 - For any repeated classes, the CSDCAS system will use an average of the two grades.
- ___ d. Submitting a copy of official transcripts (from all the universities and/or community colleges that you have ever attended) to CSDCAS at the following address.
*CSDCAS Application Center
P.O. Box 9113, Watertown, MA 02471*

Notes:

- No need to submit another copy to CSUF Admissions and Records.
- GRE is NOT required for applying to CSUF- CSD M.A. program

Refer to the CSD website for more information (e.g., admission requirements, procedures, timeline, FAQs, etc.)

It is your responsibility to check the completion of your application status at CSDCA and complete your CSUF APPLY.

A late submission or incomplete application will be NOT reviewed!