

Application Checklists for both CD master's and post baccalaureate programs

(Application deadline: February 1st for the following fall semester of each academic year)

Application to Master's program

For CD major students and the equivalent (those who have completed Communicative Disorders prerequisites elsewhere)

1. You will first apply online through CSUF Mentor (<http://www.csumentor.edu/AdmissionApp/>)
2. You will then go to CSDCAS (<https://csdcas.liasoncas.com/applicant-ux/#/login>)

Follow the instructions to create your account and submit the following information online through CSDCAS.

- ___ a. Write a letter of intent (same as 'personal statement or essay' on CSDCAS)
- ___ b. Request three letters of recommendation (two of them must be from Communicative Disorders faculty or adjunct faculty)
- ___ c. Enter the grade of all college/university courses as instructed by CSDCAS. Your GPA in the CD major (grades earned in a repeated class will be averaged out) will be computed automatically by the CSDCAS system.
- ___ d. Submit a copy of official transcripts from all the universities and/or community colleges that you attended to only the CSDCAS at the following address.

CSDCAS Application Center
P.O. Box 9113, Watertown, MA 02471

(No GRE score is required for applying to CSU Communicative Disorders program)

You are responsible for checking your application status at BOTH the CSU Mentor (via your student portal) and your CSDCA account.

A late or incomplete application will be NOT reviewed!

For those who are currently enrolled in CSUF Post baccalaureate 'Credential-only' program. (If you are no longer enrolled the CSUF postbac program, you will follow the instructions for general public application to apply through CSU Mentor & CSDCAS)

1. You do not need to apply online through CSU Mentor.

Instead, you will submit the following form to Admissions and Records Office:

___ a. The 'Change of Objective Form'

(available in Admissions and Records Service Center, LH 114; on the form, you will need to add Master's Degree in Language, Speech and Hearing to your current Credential program. For the details, please refer to the following link (Pathway to a Master's degree in Communicative Disorders for students with a B.A. degree in other fields of study, <http://communications.fullerton.edu/hcom/hcom-cd-ma.php>).

2. You will then go to CSDCAS website (<https://csdcas.liaisoncas.com/applicant-ux/#/login>)

Follow the instructions to create your account and submit the following information online through CSDCAS.

___ a. Write a letter of intent (same as 'personal statement or essay' on CSDCAS)

___ b. Request three letters of recommendation (two of them must be from Communicative Disorders faculty or adjunct faculty)

___ c. Enter the grade of all college/university courses as instructed by CSDCAS.

Your GPA in the CD major will be computed automatically by the CSDCAS system.

___ d. Submit a set of official transcripts from all the universities and/or community colleges that you attended to only the CSDCAS at the following address:

CSDCAS Application Center

P.O. Box 9113, Watertown, MA 02471

(No GRE score is required for applying to CSUF Communicative Disorders program)

You are responsible for checking your application status at your CSDCA account and double check with Admissions and Records Office for the status of your 'Change of Objective.'

A late or incomplete application will be NOT reviewed!

< Important Note:

For further information regarding letter of intent/personal statement or essay, letters of recommendations, admission requirement and application deadlines for Communicative Disorders master's program, you will click the following link (<http://communications.fullerton.edu/hcom/hcom-cd-ma.php>).