Glyndon D. Riley Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $1,000 (multiple awards may be given)

Established by: This award was established by Jeanna Riley in loving memory of her husband Glyndon D. Riley. Dr. Riley was a long-time professor in the Communicative Disorders program and was one of the founders of the Center for Children Who Stutter. Along with his wife, Jeanna, Glyndon created groundbreaking research on stuttering in children and adults. Much of the Rileys' work is still used today to diagnose and treat stuttering. This scholarship was created to continue Glyndon's legacy and encourage professional interest in children who stutter.

Open to: This scholarship is open to incoming or continuing students who are pursuing a master's degree in Communicative Disorders at Cal State Fullerton.

Criteria: Interest in children who stutter

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, available at http://www.fullerton.edu/financialaid/_resources/pdf/scholarships/Application.pdf; 2) Write a brief essay describing your professional interest in children who stutter and your overall career goals; and 3) Submit application materials to the HCOM Department office, College Park 420.
