6. ETC - Networking Panel

A move to the following allocation to be approved for $126 by ETC and NSSLHA seconds. ETC is hosting a networking workshop on October 9th. The purpose of the event is for students to network and gain more knowledge regarding the entertainment industry. They will also have a speaker in attendance, Elisabeth Bobadilla.

ETC wants to serve pastries at this event. The cheapest option is Porto's. The other options were 85 bakery and Tropicana bakery. ETC is also requesting $40 for parking.

Discussion: Gavin adds that parking passes are already given to CSUF faculty. So the guest speaker would not need a parking pass.

ETC is waiting to hear back from her board members whether they will have other guest speakers or just one speaker who is a CSUF faculty member.

Chair Desiree postpones voting for next week's meeting in order for ETC to receive clarification on who they will possibly need a parking pass for if needed.
