Sports Journalist
at RealSM Limited in London

We are looking for journalism students who are passionate about sports and who would like to pursue a career in sports journalism. The role will include contributing articles to our website about various sports. Articles can either be news, opinion based and/or analysis pieces.

Program: Academic Internship

Search for your internship under “Site Name” not “Opportunity Name.”

Tip 1: The search function only returns exact matches therefore if your company’s name is “Extreme Production” but you accidentally put “Extreme Productions,” the system will return zero matches.

Tip 2: If you are having trouble try searching a smaller fragment. For example, search “Extreme” or “Ex.”

Opportunity description and instructions:
We are looking for journalism students who are passionate about sports and who would like to pursue a career in sports journalism. The role will include contributing articles to our website about various sports. Articles can either be news, opinion based and/or analysis pieces. The desired sports include but are not limited to: American Football (NFL and NCAA), MLB, NHL, basketball (NBA and NCAA), Soccer (League and International), UFC/MMA, Wrestling, Tennis, Golf, Rugby, eSports.

RealSport is an accredited sporting news website featuring on both Google News and Newsnow. This opportunity will offer the candidate the ability to build their writing portfolio along with adding our accredited news site to their resume. Each writer's profile on the site will also allow them to track their total readership in real-time and see how many eyes are getting on their work. Our website is currently getting 500K unique monthly users and growing as the site expands. We offer the chance for our contributors to get their sporting voice/opinion out to our global user base while building a name for themselves in the sporting journalism world.
