

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, FULLERTON
DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN COMMUNICATION STUDIES

Minor in Communication Studies [HCOM] (18 units*)

The minor in CMST has been aptly referred to as, “A Minor for all Majors.” In today’s business environment everyone needs to know how to persuade, to conduct an interview (and be interviewed), to mediate a conflict and to bridge cultural barriers. The CMST minor is designed to help the individual student meet the communication needs of his/her major. Specific courses are selected from the list below. Selection is based on choosing courses that will help the student best implement his/her major. The CMST minor is especially convenient for Communication majors [Concentrations: in Advertising, Journalism, Public Relations, or Entertainment and Tourism] as it serves as a substitute for their collateral requirement.

To declare CMST minor, you need to fill out an Online Major/Minor Change Form through the Registration and Records website: <http://records.fullerton.edu/resources/majorminorform.php>.
