

College of Communications

These scholarships present a selection of those established through the generosity of alumni, faculty and community supporters to assist students in the completion of programs offered by the College of Communications. In addition, College of Communications majors and minors can apply for a wide range of scholarships and awards offered by a host of outside private organizations and professional societies. Additional university scholarships and awards can be found online at <http://www.fullerton.edu/financialaid/general/scholarships.php>

Please read all instructions for each scholarship and pay attention to the deadline, as well as details for required statements, letters of recommendation or other materials. There are variations in the application procedures and requirements for each scholarship. Incomplete and late applications will not be considered.

Note: For all scholarships, the notification process does not include a notification to all applicants but only to the selected recipient of the scholarship. The expected date of notification is by the end of May.

Department of Human Communication Studies

These scholarships present a selection of those established through the generosity of alumni, faculty and community supporters to assist students in the completion of programs offered by the College of Communications. In addition, College of Communications majors and minors can apply for a wide range of scholarships and awards offered by a host of outside private organizations and professional societies. Additional university scholarships and awards can be found online at <http://www.fullerton.edu/financialaid/general/scholarships.php>

Please read all instructions for each scholarship and pay attention to the deadline, as well as details for required statements, letters of recommendation or other materials. There are variations in the application procedures and requirements for each scholarship. Incomplete and late applications will not be considered.

Note: For all scholarships, the notification process does not include a notification to all applicants but only to the selected recipient of the scholarship. The expected date of notification is by the end of May.

HCOM Titan Shops/Titan Bookstore Scholarship

Amount: $800

Established by: This scholarship is donated by the Titan Requisition Rewards Program of Titan Shops/Titan Bookstore.

Open to: This scholarship is open to returning Human Communication Studies majors who are pursuing an undergraduate degree.

Criteria: Good academic standing ♦ Financial need ♦ Personal statement

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, available at <http://www.fullerton.edu/financialaid/resources/pdf/scholarships/Application.pdf> ; 2) Provide one letter of recommendation from a CSUF faculty or staff member; 3) Provide a one-page personal statement addressing your interest in pursuing a degree in Human Communication Studies and your financial need; 4) If you currently receive financial aid, please attach a copy of your “award” that is available through TITAN Online on your Portal; and 5) Visit <http://communications.fullerton.edu/hcom/forms.php> and follow the instructions on how to submit your application materials online to the HCOM Department.

Application Deadline: March 1, 2024 by 5 pm

Lucy M. Keele Debate Scholarship

Amount: $1,000 (multiple awards may be given)

Established by: This scholarship is named for Dr. Lucy M. Keele, who was the Director of the Forensics Program from 1969-1983 and elevated the debate program to the national level.

Open to: This scholarship is open to returning undergraduate debaters who compete in policy debate, with a preference for National Debate Tournament (NDT) debate.

Criteria: Must be a full-time returning student in good academic standing, with a minimum of one year of experience in high school or policy debate, along with a track record of success or strong potential for success in intercollegiate debate competition.

[where applicants have equal outstanding qualifications for the award, the funds may be split between them.]

Application Procedure: The recipient will be chosen by the Directors of the Forensics Program.

Application Deadline: N/A

Dr. John C. Reinard Forensics Scholarship

Amount: $2,500 (multiple awards may be given)

Established by: This scholarship is named for Dr. John C. Reinard in honor of his passion and commitment to the Cal State Fullerton Forensics program. Dr. Reinard was an alumnus of the speech and debate team, faculty member, and former Chair of the Department of Human Communication Studies. The scholarship recognizes a promising and committed student participating in the Forensics

Program.

Open to: This scholarship is open to returning undergraduate or graduate students who have been actively involved in forensics. Criteria: Active participation in Forensics at CSUF ♦ Financial Need ♦ CSUF Forensics Program Service

Application Procedure: The recipient will be chosen by the Directors of the Forensics Program.

Application Deadline: N/A

Philip J. Schreiner Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship is named in memory of Dr. Philip J. Schreiner, former professor of human communication studies and first director of the university's Faculty Development Center. The scholarship is awarded annually to recognize scholastic achievement and contributions to the Department of Human Communication Studies.

Open to: This scholarship is open to returning undergraduate or graduate students who will use the award for undergraduate or graduate study in communication studies (HCOM).

Criteria: Academic achievement ♦ Professional promise

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, available at <http://www.fullerton.edu/financialaid/resources/pdf/scholarships/Application.pdf> ; 2) Provide a letter of recommendation from a faculty member or professional reference; and 3) Visit <http://communications.fullerton.edu/hcom/forms.php> and follow the instructions on how to submit your application materials online to the HCOM Department.

Application Deadline: March 1, 2024 by 5 pm

HCOM Memorial Scholarship in memory of Herbert W. Booth, Seth Fessenden, and Wayne Brockriede

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship is named for Herbert Booth, a former professor of speech communication, Seth Fessenden, a founding member of the Human Communication Studies Department, and Wayne Brockriede, former professor of human communication studies. The scholarship is awarded annually to recognize scholastic achievement and contributions to the department.

Open to: This scholarship is open to returning undergraduate or graduate students who will use the award for graduate study in communication studies (HCOM).

Criteria: Academic achievement ♦ Professional promise

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, available at <http://www.fullerton.edu/financialaid/resources/pdf/scholarships/Application.pdf> ; 2) Provide a letter of recommendation from a faculty member or professional reference; and 3) Visit <http://communications.fullerton.edu/hcom/forms.php> and follow the instructions on how to submit your application materials online to the HCOM Department.

Application Deadline: March 1, 2024 by 5 pm

Flocken Family Legacy for Graduate Students

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This endowed award was established and funded by Dr. Joyce M. Flocken to recognize and honor outstanding graduate students in Human Communication Studies.

Gift: This award is intended to provide support for students who demonstrate academic achievement and have attained an excellent level of communication skills. The winners of the award should be articulate spokespersons who have demonstrated excellent critical thinking, analytical, and leadership skills that are associated with professional competence.

Open to: This award is open to seniors pursuing a graduate degree and/or continuing graduate students in Human Communication Studies who are enrolled in a minimum of six units of study.

Criteria: Returning students pursuing a graduate degree and/or continuing graduate students with a minimum of six (6) units of Human Communication coursework ♦ Recipients of the award may reapply for a second year ♦ Minimum of 3.00 Grade Point Average ♦ Documented financial need ♦ Excellent oral and written communication skills ♦ Professional leadership potential

[Under exceptional circumstances, where two applicants have equal outstanding qualifications for the award, the funds may be split between them.]

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, available at <http://www.fullerton.edu/financialaid/resources/pdf/scholarships/Application.pdf> ; 2) Complete a FAFSA application or if you currently receive financial aid, please attach a copy of your “award” that is available through TITAN Online on your Portal, for establishing financial need; 3) Provide a letter of recommendation from a faculty member or professional reference; 4) Write a one-page typed statement of achievements, goals and need; 5) Submit an official copy of college transcripts; 6) Provide evidence of application to or acceptance into the CSUF graduate program; and 7) Visit <http://communications.fullerton.edu/hcom/forms.php> and follow the instructions on how to submit your application materials online to the HCOM Department.

Application Deadline: March 1, 2024 by 5 pm

Lee Granell Memorial Scholarship

Amount: $1,500 (multiple awards may be given)

Established by: This scholarship is named for Lee Granell, the University's first director of forensics, and former chair of the department. It is awarded to recognize achievement in forensics activities.

Open to: This scholarship is open to returning undergraduate or graduate students who have been actively involved in forensics.

Criteria: Outstanding achievement ♦ Active participation in Forensics at CSUF ♦ Financial Need ♦ Preference will be given to veterans or individuals completing military service [Under exceptional circumstances, where applicants have equal outstanding qualifications for the award, the funds may be split between them.]

Application Procedure: The recipient will be chosen by the Directors of the Forensics Program.

Application Deadline: N/A

Robert Gass Debate Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship is named for Dr. Robert Gass, who coached debate teams at Cal. State Fullerton for 14 years as the assistant director (1981-83), director (1983-89), and co-director (1989-95) of forensics. He served as the Chair of the Department of Human Communication Studies from 2011-2013.

Open to: This scholarship is open to returning undergraduate debaters who compete in policy debate, with a preference for National Debate Tournament (NDT) debate at the varsity level.

Criteria: Must be a full-time returning student in good academic standing, with a minimum of one year of experience in high school or policy debate, along with a track record of success or strong potential for success in intercollegiate debate competition.

Application Procedure: The recipient will be chosen by the Directors of the Forensics Program.

Application Deadline: N/A

Doug and Rori Ridley Forensics Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship is named for Forensics alumni Doug '94,'95 and Rori '95 Ridley. The scholarship recognizes a promising and committed student participating in the Forensics Program.

Open to: This scholarship is open to returning undergraduate or graduate students who have been actively involved in forensics.

Criteria: Active participation in Forensics at CSUF ♦ Financial Need ♦ CSUF Forensics Program Service

Application Procedure: The recipient will be chosen by the Directors of the Forensics Program.

Application Deadline: N/A

Jeanine Congalton Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: This scholarship was established by Sarah Howard, an alumna of the Department of Human Communication Studies, and former student of Dr. Jeanine Congalton. The purpose of the scholarship is for an undergraduate student with financial need majoring in Communication Studies who participates in the Cal State Fullerton Forensics program.

Open to: This scholarship is open to full-time, returning undergraduate students majoring in Communication Studies who are participants in the Cal State Fullerton Forensics Program.

Criteria: Must be a full-time, returning undergraduate student in good academic standing, with a minimum of one year of experience in high school or policy debate, along with a track record of success or strong potential for success in the intercollegiate debate competition.

Application Procedure: The recipient will be chosen by the Directors of the Forensics Program.

Application Deadline: N/A

Positive Change Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Established by: Dr. Tara Suwinyattichaiporn, passionate educator and positive social change enthusiast.

Open to: This scholarship is open to returning undergraduate or graduate students who will use the award for undergraduate or graduate study in communication studies (HCOM) for positive change.

Criteria: Evidence of positive change you've created in your community in person or online.

Application Procedure: 1) Complete the SA application, available at <http://www.fullerton.edu/financialaid/resources/pdf/scholarships/Application.pdf> 2) Provide a letter of recommendation from a faculty member or professional reference; 3) Write a brief essay on how you have used your HCOM studies to create positive change in your community in person or online; and 4) Visit <http://communications.fullerton.edu/hcom/forms.php> and follow the instructions on how to submit your application materials online to the HCOM Department.

Application Deadline: March 1, 2024 by 5 pm